

KEATS SAMACHARAM (Quarterly Newsletter)

HAPPY NEW YEAR 2018

ACTIVITIES

KEATS and its activities were introduced to the JNTUK Hyderabad chapter at its meet on 5th Nov. The presentation was given by DV Giridhar, PV Rao and T Ch Hanumanrao.

Visakhapatnam chapter was also briefed about KEATS.

Pennar Foundation wanted to improve the infrastructure of primary schools in Adilabad district as part of its CSR activity. With its financial support, the works would be executed by KEATS. (A similar program was undertaken earlier at JVN Memorial ZPHS, Dwaraka).

PV Rao and K Ramesh visited the schools at Dwaraka, Dharamaraopet, Sriramulapalli and Peddapeta. The requirements varied from building repairs and white washing, provision of toilets and drinking water, construction of compound walls, an auditorium, electrical fittings, sports kits, supporting vidya volunteers, furniture, computer etc. These facilities would be arranged in the first quarter of 2018.

A sanitary napkin incinerator was donated to Kasturba Gandhi National Memorial Trust, Bandlaguda, Hyd

Bombai Tanda ODF Project subsidy funds realisation is in process. Once it materialises 2nd phase will be taken up.

The legal opinion on merger of Sri Satya Sai Education and Lepers Welfare Society with KEATS to manage the Sri Satyasai Krupa Home (orphanage housing 30 boys) is awaited.

MEETINGS

EC meeting was held on 19th Nov at Gymkhana Club, Hyd with PV Rao playing the host.

Regarding a video presentation to be made for appealing to prospective donors, a preliminary discussion was held at PEBS Pennar office on 8th Dec.
